

Mentor Volunteer Description

The United Way of Pueblo County Middle School Mentoring Program helps to enrich the lives of Pueblo middle school students by providing opportunities to build relationships with nurturing adults who empower and encourage them through one-to-one mentoring. The mentoring program recruits adult volunteers to commit to supporting, guiding, and being a friend to a young person for a period of at least one year. By becoming part of the social network of adults and community members who care about the youth, mentors can help youth develop and reach positive academic, career, and personal goals.

Mentor Role

- Take the lead in supporting a young person through an ongoing, one-to-one relationship
- Serve as a positive role model and friend
- Build the relationship by planning and participating in activities together
- Strive for mutual respect
- Build self-esteem and motivation
- Help set goals and work toward accomplishing them

Time Commitment

- Agree to a commitment of a minimum of one school year and a maximum of three until student completes middle school
- Attend Meet and Greet where mentors are officially introduced to their mentees and parents/guardians
- Spend a minimum of four hours per month one-to-one with a mentee, either in person at the school or remotely
- Communicate with the mentee weekly
- Attend an initial two-hour New Mentor Orientation and one additional training session during the first year of participation in the program and two mentor training sessions annually thereafter
- Attend optional mentor/mentee group events, mentor support groups, and program recognition events
